Family Literacy Activity

Say it like a Character

Say it like a Character!

- Many times children misinterpret or miss the author's intended meaning because they read silently the same way they read orally in-monotone. Have your child read a passage the way they think a character might actually speak. You will need to model this for them. This is also a great time to point out how punctuation greatly affects the way we read a sentence.

ASK QUESTIONS LIKE THESE

What emotion were you trying to show?

What made you think that you should read that way?
